

ROCHFORD METHODIST CHURCH 77-79 NORTH STREET SS4 1AD

Families and Children Mission Worker

The Role

Our Families and Children Mission Worker will lead our work in seeking to connect with and make disciples among young families and children in our locality and will lead and develop our volunteers team working with families and children.

The Person

You will be a committed Christian who is passionate about discipleship and sharing their faith with a desire to see families and children find and grow in faith.

You will have good leadership skills, able to work independently and as part of a team with volunteers with a shared vision. A confident self-starter, proactive, with good administration skills and able to set priorities; we are looking for someone with a heart for Jesus.

You will be enthusiastic, energetic and innovative and have prior experience of organising family outreach activities and children's clubs. Up to date with current evangelism practices and willing to learn and further develop your skills, you will come with plenty of initiative and a heart to see families and children come to know Jesus and become part of a church family

You will be fully conversant with safeguarding practises and be committed to the highest standards of safeguarding in all your work.

Job Description

The Families and Children Mission Worker will pioneer and develop Rochford Methodist Church's ministries with families and children in 3 key areas:

1. Lead our mission work to families and children who have not yet come to faith. Develop links with local schools and community groups including those who use our building, undertaking assemblies and other community activities where possible as a means of building relationships and supporting local families.
2. In conjunction with the Minister, Worship Leaders, and Church Stewards pioneer 'Fresh Expressions' of Church including 'Messy Church' providing pathways for discipling families and children who are new to faith.
3. Deeply engaged in the worshipping life of the Church, recruit and develop support from the congregation for existing work among families and children and lead the team of volunteers developing Sunday morning crèche and Sunday School. Ideally the role will enable the development and transfer of mission worker skills among the wider congregation.

Management Arrangements

The Families and Children Mission Worker will have a support Group comprising the Minister, Church Steward and two other members with relevant skills drawn from the wider Church and Community.

The Minister will be Line Manager for the role, carry out annual appraisals and regular review meetings. One member of the support group will act as the link between the Families and Children

Mission Worker and the Church Council, to be available to advise and act as a discreet sounding board. Training will be available through Methodist and other sources.
